Aon eSolutions Hires Don Ameche as Senior Vice President of Global Sales and Marketing

CHICAGO, Dec. 22, 2009 – Aon eSolutions, provider of award-winning technology-based tools that improve the management of risk, insurance and safety programs, today announced that Don Ameche III has joined the firm as senior vice president of global sales and marketing.

In his new role, Ameche is responsible for sales, sales operations, sales consulting, analyst relations and marketing on a global scale. His key focus will be on aligning the sales forces, building a best in class sales consulting team and streamlining practices, while creating common go-to-market and deal strategies.

Ameche has more than 20 years of sales and marketing experience, most recently serving as area vice president of retail for North America at Oracle. Prior to that, Ameche was senior vice president of worldwide sales and marketing with US Internetworking, where he was responsible for sales, sales operations, analyst relations, business development, sales engineering and channel partner and reseller relationships. Additionally, Ameche has 15 years of experience with companies in or related to selling software and products to enhance enterprise software applications environments.

"Don is a seasoned professional with a strong record of success across various global business platforms," said Kathy Burns, chief executive officer of Aon eSolutions. "Under his leadership, Aon eSolutions will develop a more streamlined global sales approach, allowing us to continue to bring the best possible service to our clients in the U.S. and international markets."
